

1 NOV 1973

Sue to halt CIA book censorship

NEW YORK—The authors and publisher of a book about the CIA have filed suit to enjoin the government from deleting roughly 10 percent of the book's material and to halt all interference with its publication.

The suit was filed by Alfred A. Knopf Inc., the publisher, and co-authors Victor L. Marchetti, a former executive assistant to the CIA's deputy director, and John D. Marks, a former State Department employee.

This is the second suit concerning the book. A court ruling in March had made it possible for the CIA to review the manuscript of the book, tentatively titled, "The CIA and the Cult of Intelligence."